| | |
|---|---|
| G001 | [Not used] |
| G002 | All ages enjoy the Fair |
| G003 | Erecting the rides on the evening before the Fair |
| G004 | Many shops close on the day of the Fair |
| G005 | [Not used] |
| G006 | The rides are more frightening every year |
| G007 | A slow start, but just wait |
| G008 | And her mother came too |
| G009 | The whole world comes to Pinner on Fair day |
| G010 | Early evening, and the crowds are gathering |
| G011 | [Not used] |
| G012 | All those Dalmatians |
| G013 | A prize every time. Who could complain? |
| G014 | But what would you do with them all? |
| G015 | Elvis who? |
| G016 | Looks like school's out |
| G017 | A very fancy labyrinth |
| G018 | Yes, Gipsy Rose Lee always shows up |
| G019 | In the old days, Fair caravans parked in the streets |
| G020 | But now they are corralled in the car parks |
| G021 | And they seem to get bigger every year |
| G022 | The old favourites are always welcome |
| G023 | Not quite the London Eye, but it fits happily into Pinner |
| G024 | Now we have police spies in the sky |
| G025 | [Not used] |
| G026 | Fair stalls seen (just) from the Parish Church Tower |
| G027 | The Destructor in Pinner. How dare they? |
| G028 | Shuttle 2000 – that's more like it |
| G029 | How did you get him up there? |
| G030 | Harrow Health & Safety watchdogs – or are they collecting pitch rents? |
| G031 | On Fair day, buses cannot get into the village. Here they wait by the synagogue |